

2006 - Domaine Puig-Parahy Cotes du Roussillon Georges

Rating : (90)

Tasting :

The 2006 Cotes du Roussillon Georges offers bright fresh blackberry and red raspberry mingled with iris, lavender and rosemary in a singularly stimulating, pungent, and invigorating nose, whose promise is fulfilled by a vividly fruit-filled, bitter-sweet, positively refreshing palate and an uplifting finish of considerable herbal and mineral complexity. Given the price for which the 2005 is being sold, this successor is almost certain to offer incredible value over the next couple of years.
